

Knowledge & Skills

I possess a diverse range of knowledge and skills that include leadership and vision, effective communication, strategic thinking, and community engagement. My experience as a leader in ministry and community programs has honed my ability to inspire and guide others. I am an effective communicator, having hosted radio broadcasts and delivered sermons nationwide. My strategic thinking skills are demonstrated through successful program transformations, such as revitalizing Choose Now. Additionally, I have a strong background in educational leadership and mentorship, with degrees in Organizational Leadership and Christian Counseling, and certifications in relationship and leadership education. My extensive community engagement and philanthropy efforts have earned significant recognition, and I excel in problem-solving, adaptability, and building collaborative relationships with diverse stakeholders. These skills enable me to lead effectively, communicate clearly, strategize innovative solutions, educate and mentor others, and engage deeply with the community.
